

ESG Analyst

(6-month internship from July 2025)

ELEVA Capital

Founded in 2014 by Eric Bendahan, ELEVA Capital is an independent investment manager, regulated by the French regulator (AMF). Anchored around 6 areas of expertise: European equities, the Small & Mid Cap universe, impact investing, fixed income, multi-asset strategies and structured products, the firm is proud of its independence and looks to differentiate through its performance, client proximity and integrity. In addition, ELEVA Capital has a long-term, innovative and industry-leading partnership with UNICEF, allocating c.10% of the firm's profits via the ELEVA Foundation. As of end-December 2024, ELEVA Capital managed EUR 14 billion.

Missions

Within the investment team and under the supervision of the Head of ESG, the intern will contribute to ELEVA Capital's ESG strategy across all funds. Depending on the candidate's profile, the missions could evolve but will notably include the following tasks:

- Contribute to the extra-financial research using ELEVA Capital's proprietary methodology
- Assess the positive contribution of investee companies to the UN Sustainable Development Goals
- Assist the investment team in the voting & engagement process
- Help improve the ESG methodologies and develop proprietary tools
- Participate in the production of communication materials and reporting

Profile

- Master's degree student in one of the following fields: business, engineering, political science, etc.
- Specialisation in financial and/or sustainable development is not required but welcomed

Skills

- Strong interest in sustainable development and financial markets
- Motivation, dynamism, curiosity, ability to summarize, argue and communicate ideas
- IT skills: at least a good command of Excel, and if possible data management / AI knowledge
- Ideally, a first experience in a similar position
- English, both spoken and written
- French is not required but welcomed

Duration: 6 months, ideally from July 2025

Location: on-site, 61 rue des Belles Feuilles 75116 Paris

Contact:

- Sylvie Laffitte, Head of HR: sylvie.laffitte@elevacapital.com
- Please send a resume and a cover letter (non-AI generated)